The Company is allowed to treat any such Clients as Professionals provided the relevant criteria and procedures mentioned herein below are fulfilled. These Clients should not, however, be presumed to possess market knowledge and experience comparable to that of the categories of paragraph 2. So, any waiver of the protection afforded to them shall be considered valid only if an adequate assessment of the expertise, experience and knowledge of the Client, undertaken by the Company, gives reasonable assurance, in light of the nature of the transactions or services envisaged, that the said Client is capable of making his own investment decisions and understanding the risks involved.

For this reason, the Company will apply a fitness test to assess the Client's expertise and knowledge.

3.2. Assessment

In the course of the above assessment, as a minimum, two of the following criteria should be satisfied:

1. the Client has carried out transactions, in significant size, on the relevant market at an

2. the size of the Client's financial instrument portfolio, defined as including cash deposits transaction, or type of transaction or product.

The Company must give the Client a clear written warning of the protections and investor compensation rights the Client may lose.

• The Client must state in writing, in a separate document from the main Agreement, that they are aware of the consequences of losing such protections.

Before deciding to accept any request for waiver, the Company must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Client requesting to be treated as a Professional Client meets the relevant requirements stated above.

3.4. Keeping the Company Informed

The Company implements appropriate written internal policies and procedures to categorise clients. Professional Clients are responsible for keeping the Company informed about any change which could affect their current categorization. However, if the Company becomes aware that the Client no longer fulfils the initial conditions which made them eligible for a professional treatment, the Company should take appropriate action.

It is the responsibility of the Client, considered to be a Professional Client, to ask for a higher the risks involved.

This higher level of protection will be provided when a Client who is considered to be a professional enters into a written agreement with the Company to the effect that the Client fitness test (see paragraph 3 above). The categorization of the client as an Eligible Counterparty does not affect the right of the client to request to be treated, either in general or for specific transactions as a retail client (see paragraph 6).

In the event of a transaction where the prospective counterparty is located in another EU

Member State, the Company shall defer to the status of the other undertaking as determined by the legislation of the said Member State in which that undertaking is established.

6. TYPES OF REQUESTS FOR DIFFERENT CATEGORIZATION

The following requests may be submitted to the Company should a Client wish to change their categorization:

(a) A Retail Client can request to be categorized as a Professional Client. The Client therefore accepts a lower level of protection (see paragraphs 3 and 7).

(b) A Professional Client can request to be categorized as a Retail Client. The Client therefore obtains higher level of protection (see paragraphs 4 and 7). A Professional Client can request to be treated as an Eligible Counterparty, obtaining therefore a lower level of protection (see paragraph 5 above).

(c) An Eligible Counterparty can request to be categorized as a Professional Client or a Retail Client. The Client therefore obtains higher level of protection (see paragraph 4 above).

It is noted that the Company is not required to agree with a request for non-professional or non-Eligible Counterparty treatment. In addition, the Company may, on its own initiative, treat as a Professional or Retail client an Eligible Counterparty or treat as a Retail Client a Professional Client.

7. PROTECTION RIGHTS

7.1 Retail and Professional Clients

Where the Company treats a Client as a Retail Client, the Client is entitled to more protections under the Law, than if the Client was treated as a Professional Client. In summary, the protections Retail Clients are entitled to are as follows (the list may not be exhaustive):

- (a) A Retail Client will be given more information disclosures with regards to the Company, its services, its financial instruments and their performance, the nature and risks of financial instruments, its costs, commissions, fees and charges and the safeguarding of Client financial instruments and Client funds, including summary details of any relevant investor compensation or deposit guarantee scheme, as applicable.
- (b) Where the Company is providing the services of Reception & Transmission of orders and/or Execution of Client orders, the Company shall ask a Retail Client to provide information regarding their knowledge, experience, financial situation or investment objectives, including risk tolerance in the investment field relevant to the specific type of product or service offered or demanded, so as to enable the Company to assess whether the investment service or product envisaged is appropriate for the Client. In case the Company considers, on the basis of the information received, that the product or service is not appropriate to a Retail Client, it shall warn the Client accordingly. Please note that the Company is not required to assess appropriateness in certain cases specified by the Art 25 Law 4514/2018 (for example, but not limited to, the situation where on an execution only basis the financial instrument concerned is not complex). On the other hand, the Company shall be entitled to assume that a Professional Client has the necessary experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks involved in relation to those particular investment services or transactions, or types of transaction or product, for which the Client is classified as a Professional Client. Consequently, and unlike the situation with a Retail Client, the Company should not generally need to obtain additional information from the Client for the purposes of the assessment of appropriateness for those products and services for which they have been classified as a Professional Client.

(c) When executing Client orders, the Company must take all reasonable steps to achieve what is called "best execution" of the Client's orders, that is to obtain the best possible result for its Clients.

Where the Company executes an order of a Retail Client, the best possible result shall be determined in terms of the total consideration, representing the price of the financial instrument and the costs related to execution, which shall include all expenses incurred by the Client which are directly related to the execution of the order, including execution venue fees, clearing and settlement fees and any other fees paid to third parties involved in the execution of the order. The Company shall also send a notice to a Retail Client confirming execution of the order as soon as possible and no later than the first business day following execution or, if the confirmation is received by the Company from a third party, no later than the first business day following receipt of the confirmation from the third party, as applicable.

Professional Clients are also entitled to a confirmation for the execution of their orders; however, there is no specific timeframe involved as to when the Professional Client will receive this information. Nevertheless, this confirmation shall be provided promptly.

In Addition, for Professional clients when providing with Best Execution, the Company is not required to prioritize the total consideration/cost of transaction as being the most important factor in achieving Best Execution.

(d) The Company must inform Retail Clients of material difficulties relevant to the proper carrying out of their order(s) promptly upon becoming aware of the difficulty.

(e) The Company is required to provide Retail Clients with more information than Professional Clients as regards the execution of their orders.

Authorised and Regulated by the Hellenic Capital Market Commission under license No. 32/315/26.10.2004

Registered Address: 48, Stadiou Street, 2nd floor, 105 64 Athens, Greece

(f) The Company is obliged to enter into a written basic agreement with the retail Client, setting out the essential rights and obligation of both parties.

Retail Clients may be entitled to compensation under the Investor Compensation Fund (ICF) for Clients of Investment Firms, while Professional Clients are not entitled to compensation under the ICF.

7.2 Eligible Counterparties

Where the Company treats the Client as an Eligible Counterparty, the Client will be entitled to fewer protections under the Law than it would be entitled to as a Retail or Professional Client. In particular and in addition to the above paragraph 7.1 (the list may not be exhaustive):

(a) The Company is not required to provide the Client with best execution in executing the Client's Orders.

(b) The Company is not required to implement procedures and arrangements which provide for the prompt, fair and expeditious execution of its Client orders, relative to other Client orders or its trading interests.

(c) The Company is not required to assess the appropriateness of a product or service that it provides to the Client but can assume that the Client has the expertise to choose the most appropriate product or service for themselves.

(d) The Company is not required to provide the Client with information about the Company, its services, financial instruments and proposed investment strategies, execution venues, the arrangements through which the Company will be remunerated and other relevant information.
